Term 3: Week 7

FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to all those students winning awards at yesterdays show, there was some amazing art and craft on display.

Thank you to everyone who came along to the book fair last week, it was a fantastic day, everyone looked great in their costumes. We raised a little over $1000 in book sales which allows the school to purchase $300 worth of books for our Library.

Naplan results will go home today for students in years 3 and 5 from the test that was sat in May. Your children have worked hard throughout the year and have had many success and challenges both in and out of the classroom on their learning journey this year, these results are only a small snap shot from 1 day out of a whole year. All students should be praised for their ongoing commitment to learning and future progress and not by a single test score. If you have any questions about your child's results please feel free to contact Mr Hurley.

A reminder from the office that excursion payments are due, we can accept cash and cheque, unfortunately we do not have electronic banking.

We had a very big week last week, I hope you enjoy browsing through the newsletter at the many photos from book week and our excursion to West Wyalong. I would like to thank Bland Shire Library, The Wyalong Historical Museum and The Splatter Gallery for hosting the students on this day.

Book Fair Parade

Book Fair

I have spent twelve dollars. There was a lot of books. I got "How to start a Dragon Academy". I dressed up as Ben from 'Muddy Paws Day at the Farm'. Miss Clark dressed up as 'the Cat in the Hat'.

By Broden Davey

I dressed up as "Mr Fox". Mr Fox is big.

By Isabelle Caldwell

At book fair I came as George out of 'George's Marvellous Medicine'. I came as George because I like the book. My favourite part is when the old lady drank the medicine. The book had one hundred and four pages. From book fair I got five books. My favourite book is probably the 'Despicable Me' book because it looks good.

By Henry Luelf

I bought a dog pen and a dog that opens and closes and a car book. I dressed up as the 'Pocket Dogs' and Miss Clark was the cat in the hat.

By Darby Cattle

I bought a book and Isla bought a funny book. The funny book was my favourite and Mum's was a cooking book. I dressed up as Becca spy cats.

By Laci Mayall

I bought a phone with textas and a ruler and a puppet on a stick. I also got a book and a note book. I dressed up as Little Red Riding Hood. By Ellie Voltz

I dressed up as the 'Lion Sleeps Tonight'. By Macey Anderson

I got a puppet on a stick and I dressed up as a Dalmatian. By StevieRose Phillips

I bought a book with a pen and a rubber. I dressed up as a ballerina. By Isla Mayall

Lachlan Expedition

20 April 1817 to 29 August 1817

On 21 June 1817, John Oxley wrote in his diary:

"The farther we proceed northwesterly, the more convinced I am that, for all practical purposes of civilized man, the interior of this country westward of a certain meridian is uninhabitable, deprived as it is of, wood, water, and grass."
